

2021 WEF Fellows Recipients

The WEF Fellows Recognition Program recognizes distinguished accomplishments and contributions of individuals who have made an impact in the global water environment in a variety of disciplines. The WEF Board of Trustees have approved the following individuals as the 2021 group of WEF Fellows:

Janet Hurley Cann, PE

Water Environment Association of South Carolina

Kristin Morico, PE, BCEE

New England Water Environment Association

Sylvan Coles

Kansas Water Environment Association

Erin Mosley, PE

New England Water Environment Association

Raynetta Curry Marshall, PE

Florida Water Environment Association

Aisha Niang, PE

Water Environment Association of Texas

Peter V. Cavagnaro, PE, BCEE

Michigan Water Environment Association

Christopher Peot, PE, BCEE

Chesapeake Water Environment Association

Marlo R. Davis

Water Environment Association of Utah

Prakasam Tata, PhD

Illinois Water Environment Association

Francis L. De Los Reyes III, PhD

North Carolina Water Environment Association

Jennifer Hartfelder, PE, PMP

Rocky Mountain Water Environment Association

Sidney Innerebner, PhD, PE

Rocky Mountain Water Environment Association

Jacqueline Ariza Jarrell, PE

North Carolina Water Environment Association

Chris Johnston, PE

British Columbia Water and Waste Association